JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 3 February 1970

25X1

1. [redacted] - GLC) Carl Marcy, Chief of Staff, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, called to say that the Committee would like someone from the Agency to accompany Bill Sullivan, of the State Department, to a briefing of the Committee on the case of [redacted] 25X1
25X1 [redacted] at 3:00 p.m. on Thursday. Marcy said the meeting would be in his office adjacent to the Foreign Relations hearings room. He said he does not know how many Committee members would be present but he was expecting Senators Fulbright and Symington. Marcy said he had made this request to Sullivan but wanted to contact us directly on it. I told Marcy I would look into it.

25X1 2. [redacted] - JMM) Accompanied the Director to the services for Representative Glenard P. Lipscomb.

25X1 3. [redacted] - JMM) Ed Braswell, Chief of Staff, Senate Armed Services Committee, called to say Senator Henry M. Jackson was interested in whether any Soviet early warning radar installations were oriented toward Communist China and, if so, whether information to this effect had ever been made public. After checking with Bruce Clarke I called Braswell to say that installations now under construction appeared oriented toward Communist China and that Secretary Laird had touched on the matter in a public statement last year.

25X1 4. [redacted] JMM) Accompanied the Director who briefed the House Appropriations Subcommittees on Defense and Military Construction. See Memo for the Record for details.

25X1 5. [redacted] - JMM) Talked to Representative John O. Marsh (D., Va.) who told me in confidence that a Democratic member from California was circulating in the Democratic caucus a statement of "no confidence" in the House leadership, and that this might stir up quite a rumpus among the restless younger members who have become increasingly disenchanted with the way things have been going in the House recently.

I agreed to visit Marsh at his office tomorrow to take up some matters stemming from his recent trip to Southeast Asia and the handling of his report thereon.
